

BRYDIE

COLLECTION

Impeccably outfitted and unapologetically refined - BRYDIE wears its sophistication like a well-cut suit. Inspired by the precision of Savile Row tailoring and timeless style, this sofa infuses any space with sartorial elegance.

With every seam and every curve considered, BRYDIE sets a formal tone. Its tucked proportions, no-sag steel spring suspension, solid timber railing, high resilience polyurethane foam core and feather-down inners, nod to the structure of a well-conceived suit and the effect is definitively gentlemanly.

Elliptical metal legs create a floating illusion, underscoring this sofa's innate sophistication.

Alternatively, a more organic, grounded effect is achieved with the warmth and texture of solid oak legs.

BRYDIE has evolved into a range of lounging, lounge chairs, ottomans and accompanying low tables, cementing its place in highly successful commercial settings. That said, it has certainly left its mark on residential interiors. When fashioned with luxurious upholstery fabrics - and when paired with DIDIER'S softer silhouettes - the result is a dynamic combination of elevated presence and utility.

BRYDIE ranges from single seating to the extended 4-seater lounging, with or without arms.
